TELL JUST WHERE THEY STAND

West Side Republican Club Passes Resolutions That Tell Just What Their Attitude Is—Benjamin Hughes' Seventieth Anniversary—Other Notes.

At the meeting of the West Side Republican club last night the following resolution was adopted which shows just where that excellent organization stands in the present campaign:
Whereas, We, the members of the West Side Central Republican club of Scranton, Pa., have been accused by certain Democratic organs of Lackawanna county of being untrue to the principles of the Republican party, in order to dispel all doubts in the matter it is hereby Resolved, That we, the West Side Central Republican club of Scranton, heartily endorse the present regular nominees of the Republican party as nominated on the regular state, congressional, senatorial, legislative and county conventions.

Notable Social Event.

The seventieth birthday of Benjamin Hughes, inside mine superintendent of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company, was celebrated at his home on Washburn street last evening by a reception which was tendered him by his numerous friends. The house was very prettily decorated with chrysanthemums, cut flowers and ferns.
Mr. Hughes was born in Brynmawr, Wales, and has been in the employ of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company for the past forty-two years. Forty years of this time he has been mine superintendent, and is invaluable to his employers.
Speeches were made by Judge H. M. Edwards, Hon. D. M. Jones, Rev. W. S. Jones, City Assessor Henry D. Jones, City Treasurer Reese G. Brooks, and Hon. H. S. Evans, of Salt Lake City. They each paid a glowing tribute to Mr. Hughes. During the evening vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. Barry, of Green Ridge, and Harry Evans, of Salt Lake City. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes proved themselves royal entertainers and the evening was spent in a social and most enjoyable manner.
Henry S. Evans presented Mr. Hughes with a handsome silver smoking set. Refreshments were served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Reese G. Brooks, Mrs. William Aubrey Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan J. Daniels, Dr. and Mrs. B. G. Reddel, Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Jones, Mrs. Luther Jones, Mrs. Joseph Hughes, Mrs. William Jeremiah, Mr. and Mrs. Zariah Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Eynon, Judge and Mrs. H. M. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Evans, of Salt Lake City; Misses Amy Jones, Edith Evans, Lizzie Lloyd, Norman Jones, Mattie Jones, Gwilym A. Williams and Morgan Morgans.

Have Secured Club Rooms.

An enthusiastic meeting of Robert Morris lodge, No. 58, Order of American True Blue, was held last evening in their rooms in Clark's hall on South Main avenue. A committee which had been appointed to secure club rooms for the entertainment of the younger members, reported that they had procured rooms in the Mears hall building, which were formerly used by the West Side social club. A great amount of interest is taken by the young members, who are anxious to put into operation several literary and musical ideas which have lately been discussed. It was also understood that the lodge would be social to a large degree. They now number 129 members.
Brief Notes of Interest.
Mrs. W. L. Davies, of North Hyde Park avenue, is seriously ill.
Frank Stewart and Ira J. Price, both of Chestnut street, were in Pittston yesterday.
Mrs. J. C. Moyn and daughter, Miss Cora Cook, are visiting friends at Plains.
The funeral of William Baggett, son of Thomas Baggett, took place yesterday afternoon from the family home on Lafayette street. Interment was made in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.
The funeral of Mrs. E. D. Fellows' class, sponsored with the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, Miss Leah Heath, eulogist, has charge of the affair.
The funeral of Lizzie, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shoesmaker, took place yesterday afternoon from their home on North Hyde Park avenue. Rev. F. A. Paupé, pastor of the German Presbyterian church, officiated. Interment was made in the Washburn Street cemetery. The funeral was very largely attended.
Martin Flynn, a well known resident of this side, and Miss Bridget Heighon, of Eighteenth street, were married in St. Patrick's church on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. Father Dunne performed the ceremony. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Catherine Burns and Thomas McNulty. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

AN ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

Graduates of Stroudsburg Normal School Band Together.
An Alumni association of the graduates of Stroudsburg Normal school, who reside in Lackawanna and Luzerne counties, was formed yesterday at Wilkes-Barre.
After organization a banquet was served at the Luzerne House, which was attended by the following:
Scranton—Misses Katie Orr, M. Mahon, A. Gaughan and Nellie Richards.
Pittston—Misses K. Cunningham, G. Morrow, S. Gordon, T. Coolidge, T. McCawley and J. F. Lord.

A WESTERN INVESTMENT.

Real Estate in Denver Purchased by William Connell.
The Denver Republican prints the following concerning the purchase of real estate by William Connell during his recent visit to Colorado:
"One of the largest real estate sales made for some time was closed last week by F. P. Dobson & Co. The property disposed of was the Vivian terrace, including three lots and four houses, on Tremont street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets. William Connell,

IN LOCAL THEATERS.

The management of the Academy of Music will present to its patrons one of the most successful and gorgeous productions at present before the public, the famous "Black Crook," having booked it for Friday and Saturday evenings with a special matinee for ladies and children on Saturday. The popular favor accorded grand spectacle in this country has resulted in magnificent productions being placed before American audiences, equalling, and in many cases surpassing the most famous European plays. This may justly be claimed for "The Black Crook," which scored a phenomenal run of twelve months at the Academy of Music, New York, owing to the remarkable completeness and lavish manner in which it had been mounted. Animated throngs of clever dancers, attired with a magnificent richness of color and Oriental splendor, will form the most beautiful tableaux, and under the dazzling light of countless colored lights, the grand march will take place, headed by the beautiful Amazon guards. The cleverest metropolitan artists will appear in the play, who will be assisted by specialty artists of European fame.

The next important announcement for local theater-goers is the coming of the popular Peter P. Dullely and his merry cohorts in the farce, "A Country Sport," at the Frothingham Saturday night. This is Mr. Dullely's second annual tour in stellar capacity and if last season's record is to be taken as a criterion, his path will be a smooth one indeed. "A Country Sport" is the product of John J. McNally's brain and is uniformly connected with the scenery and goal of high class farce comedy when compared with his previous works. It is designed and written expressly for Dullely and therefore would probably not prove suitable for other comedians, for Dullely's originality of thought and method is his really strong element. Seats now on sale at the box office.

"Fantasma" will be presented at the Academy of Music on Monday and Tuesday. The scenery is fresh, and the effects are startling and thoroughly pleasing. In the new production the inventive genius of the Hanlon shines very conspicuously. The tricks which are shown are highly picturesque and paraphernalia used in "Fantasma" are very gratifying. To attempt description would convey but a faint idea of the beauties of the highly picturesque revelations, and startling and original effects evolved on the stage at each performance. As far as the spectacular features are concerned it is equal to any entertainment of this kind ever offered. George H. Adams will appear as Pico, the clown; Miss Elsie Irving as the dramatic soprano, Lon E. Neif as the baritone; and the highly talented, the McDougall brothers.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

More than fifty young women attend the Thursday evening classes, and about the same number attend the Monday and Friday educational classes.
The bill of fare in the lunch room for Thursday evening: Barley soup, cold ham, 5c; croquettes, 5c; cold slaw, 5c; mollied tomato, 5c; tea, coffee, milk, 5c.
Next Tuesday the young women of the Young Women's Christian association are to enjoy a rare treat. Mrs. H. M. Boies will be the guest of honor, and in connection to see her beautiful collection of chrysanthemums on Tuesday afternoon. Plans will be held in the parlors, and escorted by members of the entertainment committee, at 3, 4, 7 and 8 o'clock. Members not desiring to go in the parlors can call at Mrs. Boies' residence on Clay avenue at any hour from 2 to 9 p. m.

Scranton's Business Interests.

THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with the highly picturesque views of the buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business interests. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new comers and be an unequalled advertisement to the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city in large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon THOSE WHOSE NAMES ARE DESIRED in this edition and explain its nature more fully.
Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please leave notice at the office.
I am prepared to receive a limited number of piano prices. For terms, etc., address Richard F. Lindsay, 322 Mulberry Street, or at Powell's Music Store.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

(Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune will not be held responsible for opinions here expressed.)

Sheriff Fahey's Disclaimer.

Editor of The Tribune.
Sir—I clip the following from your issue of this morning:
"If the bushyhaired Times wishes to enlighten itself as to the identity of the Democratic candidate who would like to negotiate a reciprocity treaty with honest Thomas D. Davies, it might interview the high sheriff of Lackawanna county. He seems to know pretty much all there is to be known about the Democratic campaign in this section."
There is not a particle of truth in the insinuation that I would like to negotiate a reciprocity with Candidate Davies or that I have in any way given the least ground for a suspicion of that kind. If any man can say aught otherwise, let him speak.
